W. D. Edson, Esq., who has just arrived in the city, with his wife and son, will enter upon the practice of the law here, in association with his brother, E. P. Edson as is contemplated. Mr. Edson is a member of the New York bar, and was admitted to practice in the supreme court of that state in 1872. His residence has been in Canandaigua, Ontario county, New York, of which town he is the present supervisor, a choice "which speaks volumes of his popularity," as the Sidney Record remarks in a very complimentary and regretful notice of his departure, for Mr. Edson is a republican like his brother, and Canandaigua gives ordinarily a large democratic majority. His standing as a lawyer and personally at his former home has been of the best, and he will be cordially welcomed to Duluth.

Social Notes

The new German club has issued invitations to its first party, which takes place Tuesday evening at Masonic hall. The affair is under charge of Governor Merriam. It is intended to give two parties before Lent.

The Woman's Relief corps will have a camp fire at the Bethel next Tuesday evening, Jan. 27. The demand on their funds is greater than usual on account of the sickness in the city. They expect to raise money with which to alleviate suffering by means of this camp fire and call for generous donations.

A meeting of the dramatic club recently organized by Bishop McGolrick was held in Catholic Association hall last evening. This club is formed for the purpose of furnishing amusement for the winter. There was a good attendance and new members were added. A very entertaining program was rendered, consisting of readings and recitations by Misses Harvey, Shanley and Fieldner and Messrs. Farrell, Collet, Ouellette and Murphy. William Parrell's reading from Shakespeare was a very effective piece and well read. Four of the members were appointed to entertain the next meeting, which will be held on next Thursday evening.

The following is the Saturday club program for tomorrow, it being travel afternoon: 1. St. Germaine and St. Denis; 2. Fontainebleau; 3. Brussels; 4. Antwerp.

Pure cod liver oil of my own importation direct from Norway, for sale at C. J. Tufek's drug store, 1803 West Superior street, Duluth, Minn.

Merriam &amp; Loblay

It is stated from St. Paul that Governor Merriam's late private secretary, Elliott, now representing the governor's interests at West Superior, is there lobbying against the annexation of West Duluth to Duluth. As Mr. Elliott is the representative of Governor Merriam it shows the feeling of the governor.

In Lower Court

At the municipal court, Nels Olson, drunk and disorderly, was committed fourteen days. Joseph Lloyd brought a replevin suit this morning, before Special Judge Davies, against G. Orestovsky, the tailor, to recover possession of an overcoat, for which he would not pay the tailor because, he said, the repairing was not done to suit him. The plaintiff was given possession of his coat, together with the costs of the suit.

May Delay Construction

The Port Arthur, Duluth & Western sustained a loss of about $500 by the recent fire in its engine house at Port Arthur, says an employee of that route. "The most serious result, however, lies in the fact that the engines used in construction are badly damaged. If repairs can be made immediately no delay will occur other wise work will have to be postponed till spring."

WORLD OF COMMERCE

Course of Prices of Wheat and Other Products.

THE NEW YORK MONEY MARKETS

Duluth, Chicago and Other American and Foreign Grain and Speculative Centers.

The market opened weak here today at from 1/2 to 1/2 below yesterday's close and ruled still weaker, losing 1/2 to 1/2 more during the first hour in futures. Influenced, however, by reports of firmer American markets, prices gradually stiffened up on cash wheats and also on May No. 1 northern, for which there was an excellent demand. The mills offered good figures for cash wheat on track, while late cables reported 1/2 advance on spot wheat at Liverpool. The clearances at four ports yesterday were: Wheat, 68,354 bu; flour, 44,337 packages, and corn, 33,481 bu. Cash wheat in store and January wheat ruled firm and advancing up to the close, while May No. 1 northern wheat weakened 1/2 from the top notch of 92 1/2 in the afternoon.

Cash No. 1 hard winter sold at the same figure at 90 and closed at the same figure. The other two grades closed at 87 1/2 and 82 1/2. Cash car lots to arrive No. 1 northern sold first at 88 1/2. Good No. 1 northern on track sold at 88 1/2 and 88 1/2 for milling. No. 2 northern on track sold at 86. The demand was good. January wheat ruled selling in the forenoon for No. 1 northern at 88 1/2 and closing at 87 1/2. May wheat ruled quite active during the forenoon and early afternoon session especially in No. 1 northern. From the first sale at 91 1/2 to the closing one 92 1/2 there was a steady advance under good demand. Sales were made in 25,000 bu. lots. In the last half hour the market ruled dull and prices slumped off 1/2. No. 1 northern closing with bids at 92 1/2. No. 1 hard May wheat closed at 90 1/2 bid.

The closing prices were as follows:

New York Money and Stocks.

New York, Jan. 21.—Money loaned at 2 1/2 per cent. Exchange steady; posted rates 45 1/2 @ 48; actual rates, 45 1/2 @ 48 for sixty days, and 48 1/2 @ 48 1/2 for demand. Governments quiet; currency, 66, 1/2; 4s, coupon, $1.20 bid 1/2 @ 60, $1.03 bid.

The stock market was extremely dull only $3.10 shares changed hands. It opened unchanged but there was some selling in Richmond & West Point, St. Paul, Chicago, Atchison, and other grangers and a fractional decline took place except in the case of Chicago gas which was exceptionally strong and after opening 1/2 per cent lower, advanced 1 1/2 per cent. This was lost in the last half of the hour. The general list made further slight declines by 11 o'clock. The decline ranged from 1/2 to 1 1/2 per cent.

Foreign Markets.

LONDON, Jan. 23.—The grain markets opened irregular. At Liverpool white wheat was firmly held, but red was very dull. Corn was 1/4 lower. At Mark lane wheat was quiet but steady. Corn was quiet. Wheat and corn on passage was firm. French markets unchanged. The receipts of wheat at Liverpool during the past three days amounted to 27,000 bu, including 45,000 bu American.

Chicago Money.

CHICAGO, Jan. 23.—The clearings were $11,068,317. Foreign exchange ruled dull at 84 1/2 for sixty days bill and 84 1/2 for sight drafts. New York opened at 26 discount bid and par asked with no sales before closing.

Chicago Wheat.

CHICAGO, Jan. 23.—Wheat opened very weak. Yesterday's break took the confidence of the trade very materially and induced heavy selling. Partridge bought freely at the start and steadied values materially. Wheat, May, started at 93 1/2 against 93 1/2 as yesterday's close. For a moment it sold at 93 1/2 and then improved to 93 1/2. The market was 1/2 to 1/2 strong, however, at the better figures. Receipts at Minneapolis were 249 cars, at Duluth, 22 cars, against 204 cars for both places yesterday. May corn started weak at 91 1/2, sold to 91 and to 91 1/2.

Following is the close: Wheat: May, 94; July, 90. Corn: May, 51 1/2 @ 52; Oats: May, 43 1/2. Pork: May, $10.35. Lard: May, $9.05 1/2. Ribs: May, $3.15.

Money Easter Abroad.

LONDON, Jan. 23.—The bank of England yesterday reduced discount rate from 4 to 3 1/2 per cent.

Flourishing Swamp Cases.

The trial of the swamp land cases before the register of the local land office will be completed today. There were thirty-six cases disposed of since the commencement of the taking of evidence this week. Evidence has been taken in over 200 cases since last May and forwarded to Washington.

THE RAINY LAKE ROAD.

Surveyors Find a Rough Country with Rock Swamps and Mountains.

Intelligence is received from the surveying party of the Rainy river railway, a line intended to connect the Rainy River country with the Port Arthur, Duluth & Western. They have established headquarters at French lake and have spent some time in a general investigation of that territory. It is not level as was at first supposed, but instead is hilly and very rocky. So far three routes have been discovered, however, and the party will at once determine the most desirable.

The line to Chino lake is an easy one and on to Cariboo lake the country is swampy. From that point to Salawa lake the route is pronounced practicable, but further than that nothing is yet ascertained. A mountain range presents itself in the way and is apparently continuous.

ACQUITTED OF ASSAULT.

East of the Trial for Assault in the First Degree on Copman.

The case of Wesley Gould, indicted for assault in the first degree, was concluded in the district court late yesterday by a verdict of not guilty. The jury was not out over fifteen minutes. The case was fought stubbornly from beginning to end and both County Attorney Tear and Mr. Towne went over the evidence very carefully in their closing arguments.

The reading of the verdict was the signal for a general flutter about the courtroom, and Gould's friends did not attempt to conceal their joy. His wife smiled for the first time during the long and tedious trial, which she has attended constantly. His aged mother wept for joy.

The case, to which public attention was first called by The Herald, has attracted wide attention, it being thought for weeks that Charles Copman would die as a result of his injuries. Fortunately, however, the result was not so, and the verdict that Mr. Gould, who had always been known as a most quiet and law-abiding citizen, had no ill intent, very generally pleased the public.

IN FAVOR OF ANNEXATION.

The Legislature Urged to Pass the Annexation Bill.

H. P. Wieland introduced the following resolution at yesterday's convention. Resolved, that it is the sense of this convention that the scheme of annexation of the outlying suburbs of Duluth to the city of Duluth, should be perfected and carried out, and that we will endorse the efforts of our representatives to make of the territory contiguous to Duluth one of the great cities with all its varied interests and industries unified, to the end that she may progress in the future as never in the past.

Resolved, That all patriotic citizens should give every aid and comfort to those who are friendly to Duluth, and turn a hostile front to all her enemies at home or abroad.

Resolved, That our representatives in the legislature are requested to use all honorable means to secure the passage of the annexation bill.

POLITICAL POINTS.

The alliance last night protested against the nomination of Engberg as city treasurer.

R. N. Marble is democratic nominee for alderman from ward two.

It is not yet certain that N. Grignon will accept the nomination given him yesterday as alderman from the First.

Who is this man Hanson, anyway? seems to be the prevailing question asked in the Sixth ward since the city convention. He does not seem to be generally known.

The two men who represented the First ward in the convention yesterday afternoon indignantly deny to The Herald that they were in any job, or that there was any job in the selection from that ward, as stated in the News this morning.

THE MAYOR'S POWERS.

They are not greatly to be extended by the New City Charter.

The council committee on the revision of the city charter have deemed it best not to materially extend the powers of the mayor in the new city charter.

The only additional power granted the mayor is the right to remove patrolmen without any action on the part of the city council and with reference of the matter being made to them.

J. J. MILLER DIES.

An Old Duluth Resident Dies This Morning: The Funeral.

J. J. Miller, brother of J. T. Miller died early this morning of Bright's disease after a long illness. He left full and explicit directions for his funeral. He is to be embalmed by Durkan & Co. and sent to Chicago, where he will be buried alongside of his mother. Mr. Miller was an old and respected citizen of Duluth. He leaves a wife and family.

THE FIND IMPORTANT.

That Rock Salt Find Claimed to be a Valuable One.

The rock salt find is more important than was at first supposed. A salt expert has examined the deposit and pronounced it valuable. "Of an opinion," he said to a reporter, "that the find of rock salt will prove extremely valuable. Rock salt, in order to be worth mining, must be in large quantities, and I never knew such a specimen as the one that came from 21, but that was a chunk from an extensive mass."

Fixing Police Matters.

The police telephone department in the central station is connected with the municipal court room, the mayor's office and the patrol wagon station. The chief of police's office is also connected with the mayor's office and the municipal court room in the same way.

Carry Freight for the Northern Line.

It is reported in newspapers down the lakes that the Hill Northern line will drop the traffic arrangement with Ward's line and charter the steamer Weed for the coming season. A visit to Mr. Hill's representative in this city revealed the fact that nothing had yet been done regarding arrangements for next season. Other lines however will have to be chartered to carry Hill freight. It is probable that all the boats of the Union Steamboat company's line will carry Hill freight.

Mr. Butler Back.

Guy Butler, correspondent of the Duluth Tribune, has returned from Pine Ridge. Mr. Butler does not share in the optimistic view that the Indian troubles are over, but states as his belief that an outbreak will surely come in the spring if the present tendencies continue, unless Gen. Miles adopts very stringent measures and disarms the hostiles. He gives it as his opinion that the Indians came in only because it is winter, and they deliberately plan to renew hostilities with warm weather.

Mail Carriers Alive.

News is received today that the Lake Royale mail carriers, who were last week reported drowned, are alive and well. They were delayed for several weeks by bad winds.

Duluth, Jan. 24.—Local forecast until 8 a. m. tomorrow: Warmer; fair weather.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—Forecast till 8 a. m. tomorrow: For Wisconsin: Generally fair; warmer; southerly winds. For Minnesota: Generally fair; warmer; southerly winds.

MINNESOTA'S PART.
For the credit of the state, for the right showing of her comparative strength in the Union, for the certain advantage of such an exhibit, we heartily hope that Minnesota will be prompt to do her part in the World's Fair. Commissioner Harrison is now urging the appropriation by the state of $200,000 to provide a display which will fitly and impressively present the resources and products of this great state. In view of the appropriations already assured by other states and the high-spirited rivalry which will be shown in the contest for distinction this appropriation is not a dollar too much to sustain the credit of the state and present her rightly to the eyes of the millions that will gather from all parts of this country and from all countries to see the grandest exhibit of national progress that has ever been shown.

Minnesota cannot afford to be meagerly and meagrely represented in such a concourse of states and nations. No state in the country has a greater interest in the attraction of immigration and investment and no state in the country has more to offer as a magnet of attraction. Her close proximity to the seat of exhibit enhances her obligation to show herself worthily and assure the fullest and promptest consideration of her claims to attention if they are fitly presented. Will Minnesota then deprecate herself? Will she put on a poor mouth and break the confidence which she ought to command by a pity and partial assertion of her resources and progress? Will she put parsimony in place of proper enterprise and count some petty saving at the expense of an offset to the loss at long haul? Is it possible that any citizen of the state can be blind to the honor and profit of affixing exhibit or that any one in town or country will grudge a contribution of less than twenty-five cents a head for the credit of the state and a forty-fold return at least?

Never again in the lifetime of any now living will a call so imperative be made for the co-operation of this state and never again will an opportunity so grand be offered for the promotion of all her interests. The more this is considered, the more profoundly will it be realized, and we believe that this realization is all that is needed to assure the answer to the call and the cordial grasping of the opportunity. Let every man open his eyes to what this World's Fair will be and what Minnesota's part imports to the state at large and himself personally and as a part of the state, and there will be no fear that he will grudge what is needed on the part of the state to win all that may be won for the state. Then let all urge upon the representatives of the state to sustain her credit, fulfill her duty, and advance her interests by contributing her part to this triumph of peace and progress that commemorates the discovery of the new world and the march of the centuries that have wrought such wonders of transformation.

UNION BEFORE ANNEXATION.
We regret to be obliged to note that, at present writing, the conference committee considering the question of annexation are not within reach of an agreement. There is no pending public question which calls so urgently for union, and mutual concessions, if necessary, for the sake of union as this. We doubt if it is feasible to force immediate annexation through in the teeth of determined opposition and we very gravely doubt the expediency of attempting it at the cost of certain bitterness, and alienation and misrepresentation and incident losses for an uncertain result.

Nothing will so retard Duluth and arm mean detraction on the other side of the bay as discussion and distraction on this side, and every consideration of public spirit and prudence makes for conciliation and union.

It is not a matter of extraordinary moment to Duluth whether annexation takes place now or two years later, but it is of extraordinary moment to all interested in the harmonious building up of this side of the head of the lake that harmony here should not be torn asunder. It is urged that there is a risk of imposition on Duluth through the compulsory assumption of debt contracted in the interval, but this risk is faint compared with the certainty of demoralization that will follow bull-headed wrangling. We want union more than annexation.

In response to the charge of conspiracy made in the bringing of an action to set aside the deed to certain property in the Sixth division, the defendant makes a full answer by affidavits which are given in another column. It is a case for the courts to settle, but in view of the publicity which has been given to one side of the case, the defendant is entitled to the equally public rejoinder which he now makes, contradicting flatly the assumptions in the charge against him.

Again the United States supreme court has declared it unconstitutional for any state to pass a law restricting interstate commerce under the mask of a pretended sanitary regulation. Last year the statute of this state was thrown out which aimed to exclude the importation of dressed meats, by a decision in a test case covering the importation of meat from Illinois. This year in a case which was brought at the instance of the Armour Packing company, of Chicago, the United States supreme court has declared that the state of Virginia cannot pass a prohibitory statute on the like pretence. The state of Virginia set about to prevent the sale within that commonwealth of dressed beef, which was not the product of the state of Virginia. In order to accomplish this and to make it appear that the statute was not directly aimed at all beef produced outside of the state, a statute was enacted which prohibited the sale of fresh beef, veal or mutton which should have been slaughtered 100 miles or over from the place from which it was offered for sale. The statute also provided a detailed method of inspection by state officials, and required all foreign producers of beef to subject their meat for inspection and to pay the state inspector one cent per pound for making the inspection. On appeal to the supreme court the Virginia statute is knocked out for the good of the state and the whole country, as we believe, and this conclusion puts a head and foot stone on such narrow-minded and short-sighted prohibitions. The country will not be pleased by the puffing up of any more of them.

Woman's Smiles and Woman's Tears.
One to entertain, the other to soften the heart of mankind. An old bachelor once said women were either "all smiles or all tears," but this cannot be true for what would there be "twixt a tear and a smile? Women have enough to bear to them all tears," and enough to hope for to make them "all smiles."

When afflicted with nervousness, female weaknesses, sick headache, and the numerous diseases peculiar to their sex, their necessity for contemplation and for "tears," but when they consider that there is a sure remedy in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for all such "female complaints," there is reason for "smiles."

An Equivalent for Suicide.
If we allow our bodily infirmities to make away with us through neglect, have we such an immense moral advantage over the deliberate suicide? Surely. For example, the deadly progress of Bright's disease, diabetes, acute nephritis and gravel is sure—often terribly swift in the catastrophe. Most people of average information know that this is the simple, unvarnished truth in regard to those widely prevalent maladies. To delay judicious medication is especially suicidal in such cases. The means of restraint is to be found in Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Give an ounce to the action of the kidneys with this sure and reliable diuretic, and the infant complaint is short at the birth of the power for evil. Allow it to be the victor in the contest with the vilest of the vile. The Bitters which annihilates these growing troubles also eradicates dyspepsia, rheumatism, malaria and liver complaints. Appetite, sleep and vigor are also promoted by it.

Also for thirty-five bungalow houses which will be built as soon as materials can be delivered on the ground. ## WEST DULUTH.

Yesterday afternoon the general topic discussed in all places was the annexation scheme. People here are unanimous in one thing, to stay out of Duluth. O. H. Simons met with many of the representative business men yesterday afternoon as could be got together and conferred with them regarding the action of the Duluth chamber of commerce and the village council last evening. Five members were appointed a committee to confer with a committee from Lakeside and the Duluth chamber as follows: J. T. Gunn, G. J. Mallory, W. C. McClure, W. H. Wheeler and J. M. Martin. The committee was instructed to oppose annexation at any and all times. The chairman read a letter from Representative Boyd requesting all citizens of West Duluth who had acquaintances in the legislature to write them protesting against the annexation scheme and requesting aid in securing a city charter for West Duluth. A petition was drawn up against annexation and is already signed by all the leading citizens.

"I Arise to Explain."

Speaking of the Question of

ANNEXATION

There are as many minds as there are men, and the question will no doubt be as justly settled as has been that other great question, viz: Who has the best bargains? Who always make money for their clients? Who guarantee profits on the sales they make? Who? I say who can sell you 5, 10, 20 or 160 acre tracts close to the cities at less than half the price they will bring on our Glorious Fourth of July next. I say frankly and emphatically,

MERRITT &amp; EARL, 302-303 PALLADIO.

Solomon's Temple

Was only 167 feet long, 36 feet wide and 31 feet high. The porch was 30 feet long and 18 feet wide, and yet it took 30,000 men seven years to complete it. The Big Temple has been in business for 10 consecutive years, and has furnished clothing for thousands upon thousands of men and boys, not only in our city of Duluth, but all over the Northwest. It has always handled reliable goods and sold them at the lowest possible prices. It is the largest store in the Northwest devoted to the sale of Clothing, Hats, Shoes and Furnishing Goods. It was the first to introduce the one-price system, the electric light and the cash railway.

The great 30 per cent DISCOUNT SALE is now going on with a rush. 20 cents off on every dollar's worth of merchandise bought at this Great Discount Sale, no matter how small or large the purchase. Look at the prices stacked up in our front show windows.

DULUTH, Jan. 27.—Local forecast until 8 a. m. tomorrow: Cold; fair weather.

TO ALLAY SUSPICION.

After a short period of apparent impunity the typhoid malarial and typhoid fever seems to have again made its appearance. It is epidemic in many cities over the country, Duluth not alone suffering, and in nearly all its cause has been almost ineluctably traced to the drinking water generally used.

Duluth had as a late visitor, the secretary of the state board of health, who has essayed to tell us the cause of typhoid. Suffice it to say that we know no more after he had gone than before he came, except that—so he said—the city water was not responsible for the trouble. Let it be remembered that, while Dr. Hewitt may be and probably is an excellent physician, the position of secretary of the state board of health is not, in itself, any guarantee of scholarship or knowledge. It might be given, and is in many states, to any decent political hack. Nor is the fact that the doctor comes from the little town of Red Wing a proof of superabundant ability.

But Dr. Hewitt said the water was not responsible; see page containing disease germs from typhoid patients—so he said—drains down the hillside and in some way is taken into the stomach, thence the trouble. It breathed into the lungs it will have no effect, but must be taken in the stomach. But the water we drink is not responsible. In other words Duluth people are probably engaged in a frantic effort to get by, should germs into their stomachs by eating dirt—for the water is not to blame.

The people of Duluth, strange to say, cannot agree with the doctor. For six or seven years, ever since we have had late water, there has been a suspicion that all was not right, that sickness and death was caused by the carelessness of those supplying the water. Why then, for the sake of allaying suspicion if for no other reason, has not the water company been forced to put its supply above the possibility of danger? Why is it not now forced to correct what are believed to be terribly fatal dangers? Why are not the managers and officers of the company held criminally responsible—as they are now morally by the citizens of Duluth—for what appears to be the result of their negligence? The water we drink may be all right; let us know that it is.

CANON FARRAR'S DEVELOPMENT.

The seventh of the series of articles appearing in the Forum on "Formative Influences" was contributed by Canon Farrar of Westminster. More than any of the other contributors to the series, which include such men as W. E. H. Lecky, Professor Tyndall, Dr. Edward Everett Hale, Dr. Eggleston and Frederick Harrison, Canon Farrar credited his association with distinguished characters with having exerted a formative influence upon his character. His religious trend was the result of the teachings of a mother of marked piety and of a superior character. But the origin of the liberal tendencies which have made him the acknowledged leader of the broad church movement in the church of England, and the real founder of the "new theology," can easily be traced to the liberal associations to which he refers with evident pride.

And a great part of the association was with characters who died before his birth, characters whose only association with him was by books. Among the authors he read as a youth were Milton, Sir Walter Scott, Captain Marryat and Penmore Cooper. Later Coleridge, Wordsworth, Byron, Dante and Shelley furnished intellectual food and entertainment. Milton's prose works exerted a more marked influence upon him as a young man than any others of a controversial character. This argument is a strong plea for good and careful reading for the young.

For one who was brought up in an atmosphere of theology, the great churchman's readings, and associations were singularly wide and varied. The wholesome effect of both, his breadth of scholarship and freedom from religious bigotry attest. Like his friend Marston he lived amid the "the zone and bays of religious obliquity," but he outgrew it, and came to be recognized as one of the great leaders of religious thought in the Christian world.

SENATOR INGLE'S SUCCESSOR.
William Alfred Pfeffer, the choice of the Kansas alliance, is a Pennsylvania Dutchman, 60 years old. His schooling was obtained between the age of 10 and 15. At 15 years he was made master of an adult district school and taught until he was 19. Then he caught the gold fever and went to California where he made considerable money, and returned to Indiana, as a farmer, but was unsuccessful both there and in Missouri.

At the breaking out of the war the embryo statesman enlisted. He served until June 24, 1865, having been principally on detached duty. During the two later years of his service he devoted himself to the study of law. At the close of the war he settled in Tennessee and practiced law. He moved to Freelon in 1872 and there established the Freelon Journal, a weekly newspaper, at the same time continuing his law practice. He was a delegate to the national republican convention in 1880. In that year he moved to Topeka, and assumed editorial control of the Kansas Farmer. He has been engaged in the publication of that paper ever since.

Judge Pfeffer is six feet tall. He is quite as slim as Mr. Ingalls, being unusually narrow chested and lank of limbs. Thick black hair grows over his low retreating forehead. His black eyes shine deep over a heavy black beard, which reaches quite to his waist. His manner of speech is slow and deliberate but not hesitating.

D. O. Mills, of the North American Commercial company, has given to the preservation of seals in the Bering sea. It is of little use to the United States, he thinks, to have merely a three-mile jurisdiction. The female seals always go to the Pribilof islands, which are outside the three-mile limit, to give birth to their young, and any jurisdiction is valueless which does not embrace the United States to protect the seals while on these islands.

The Ashland Press joins a Duluth sheet in denying that The Herald's information to the effect that the big Cranberry Lumber company would move from Ashland to Duluth. The Press, being a sturdy and brave Ashland paper, always standing up for its own city, might be expected to deny the report, but The Herald is sorry to see it fall into the error of crying down the truth even to boom Ashland.

For a fleet of forty-one of the finest naval vessels of their class ever floated, the United States have paid exactly $3,573,355. It may be asserted that no such expenditure has ever before produced such admirable results. In every respect the new ships are perfect types of their classes, and the cheapness with which they have been obtained is remarkable.

The Herald would like to know why it is that local physicians, who use city water for family purposes, boil it? Inquiry discloses that many of them do so. Why do they do it? Dr. Hewitt said the water was excellent and perfectly harmless.

A Duluth Chinaman evidently believes marriage, at least with a Mexican woman, is a failure. His epigrammatic expression of his opinion is perhaps a compliment to the strong arm of the comely landlady whom he wedded.

THEIR INNERMOST THOUGHTS.

Real estate dealer: From the looks of that crowd I do not see when their time comes in in Duluth, St. Louis had a big sale.

C. E. Lovett: The morning papers shouldn't be too partisan on the annexation question. Give the suburbs a show.

GEORGE BANCROFT.

(For The Herald, by E. O. S.)
Great champion of the one hand.
Thy patriot heart has ceased to beat!
The blood that warmed thee ever hot
Has frozen in its four-foot retreat.

This must-see on shore and plain
That to the ghost tree half grown
Hath found in thee a generous friend—
A prophet of a day's truth's own.

Thy stately lips have charmed the world,
And drawn the vision of the age
To where Columbia's flag unfurled,
Floated freedom's joy—oppression's rage.

If on the fair white page of heaven
An angel writes the comparative notes,
To thee this honor shall be given—
Recording angel of the Western notes.

AN OFFICIAL OPINION.
The report of the late grand jury on E. R. Jefferson is worth repeating:

The character of the case and the committee (E. R. Jefferson) does not seem to have a clear, well-balanced comprehension of his duties, and he has an exaggerated idea of his powers. Instead of exercising an unbiased measure of performing his duties, he has cheerfully authorized the purchase of supplies for some officials, and has vehemently opposed the purchase of similar and equally necessary supplies for others. It is the opinion that his resignation as chairman, forced or otherwise, would result greatly for the benefit of the public business. The grand jury wishes to particularly impress upon the court that the chairman of the court house and jail committee (E. R. Jefferson) is incompetent and cause considerable delay in the transaction of business. The grand jury finds the charges made by E. R. Jefferson to be totally without foundation and exonerates either his intellect or a staffed system of intentional annoyance.

AMERICA'S NEW FAVORITE.

Miss Agnes Huntington is the young American contralto, who, appearing in the title role of "Paul Jones," a new French operetta, and who is most pleasantly remembered in Duluth, where she has appeared in leading roles in the Bostonians, has had a remarkable career. "I always sang and was fond of music, even as a little child," she said the other day, "I think I made my debut in my mother's drawing room, when I was no more than 7 years old. I used to imitate the birds and sing love songs and ballads with almost as much feeling as I could now, though I couldn't understand the words at all and have never been able to explain what impetus or instinct enabled me to do it. I studied music because I was fond of it, with no sort of idea of earning my living by it. I had then no need of that, as my father was quite capable of taking care of me. I studied, too, at Mrs. Sylvanus Reed's school, and took lessons from Douglas, the Volk. When mamma thought best to put what talent I had to some use, she was really quite undecided as to whether I should be an artist or a musician. In fact, after I went to Dresden I did study painting as well as music.

"The most important occasion on which I sang there was at one of the Gewandhaus concerts at Leipzig. You know you can sing anywhere in Germany, if you can be selected as one of the soloists there, and they allowed me to sing in Italian, too, which is contrary to the precedent. I sang in concerts in Germany, in Paris, London and the larger cities in the American. Dr. Damrosch offered me a place in the German opera here, but I didn't feel that I had sufficient dramatic skill for the work. I didn't know what to do with my arms then, and couldn't manage my elbows. My hands weighed twenty-five pounds each if I tried to do anything with them on the stage. I hadn't sufficient confidence to begin so high on the ladder, and I joined the Bostonians instead, and when the better part of that company organized themselves into the Bostonians, I sang with them in all the principal American cities until I went to London.

Miss Huntington does not like playing a boy's part better than a woman's part. She would rather play the latter, but it is not easy to find a woman's part adapted to a contralto voice. When she reached London and sang for Mr. Rosa, she found her voice so much better than he had expected that he said he really hadn't a role good enough to offer her, as he had already assigned the best contralto roles. Then, after a little, he asked her, if she had special songs written for her, if she would take Paul Jones, saying that the piece would probably have only a very short run, and then he would give her something better. But the American artists who had been brought out in London had been so advised and puffed that people were somewhat disappointed. Miss Huntington didn't allow one of her American notices to be repeated, and she avoided all mention in the newspapers.

The story of the success of "Paul Jones" and of Miss Huntington's triumph in it is familiar. With no prestige, no particular reputation as a singer, she came to London, with a house filled with critics, and with only two or three friends this side of the Atlantic in a trying role, knowing that her future depended upon her success that night. Her triumph was undoubted. The success came the fashion in London, and her social success was fully as great as her artistic success. Boston was disappointed this evening at the Holles to judge as to the correctness of the London verdict in the singer's favor.

As to her habits of life, Miss Huntington says: "I keep strong and well, simply by living as the clock goes, and eating the same food as the rest of the world, and that was a quiet little supper with five other people at the house of an intimate friend I come directly home from the theater, have a little chop or something warm and light for supper with my mother, and go to sleep."

Amusements.

On Friday and Saturday evenings of this week William & Kelly, in their grand farce comedy "U & I," and "The Man who trusts in Pierce's Pills." This must-see on shore and plain that to the ghost tree half grown hath found in thee a generous friend—A prophet of a day's truth's own.

Thy stately lips have charmed the world, And drawn the vision of the age To where Columbia's flag unfurled, Floated freedom's joy—oppression's rage.

Money and Stock Situation in New York Today.

PRICES FOR WHEAT IN DULUTH.

Chicago, Minneapolis and Foreign Markets; Trade Notes of General Interest.

The market opened weaker here this morning in sympathy with Chicago and other American markets. The visible supply report showed a much larger decrease than was expected, namely for wheat 77,000 bu. for corn 55,000 bu. and for oats 60,000 bu. The markets on this visible report gradually strengthened, and the advance in the forenoon was from 1/8c to 1/4c in the forenoon. There was an excellent demand for cash wheat especially for the ruling grades on track. The close was fairly firm, but very dull at 2 1/2c decline all around for the day. Cash wheat ruled fairly active in the forenoon, starting with a sale at 80c for fresh wheat in store and selling at 12:30 at the same figure. The close was 2 1/2c below this at 3:30c. Cash No. 1 hard in store and No. 1 northern closed at 92 1/2c and 88 1/2c respectively. Cash corn lots to arrive for milling purposes had a good demand in the forenoon, No. 1 hard selling at 91 1/2c early, and No. 1 northern at 82c. Nothing was done in the afternoon. There were no sales in January wheat which closed with bids at 92 1/2c and 88 1/2c bid. May wheat ruled dull, selling only in the No. 1 northern grade at 95c. In the afternoon nothing was done in the future.
The closing prices were as follows:

|  | Cash Jan. 1 | May    |
|--|-------------|--------|
| No. 1 hard   | 84 1/2      | 85 1/2 |
| No. 1 northern   | 84 1/2      | 85 1/2 |
| No. 2 northern   | 84 1/2      | 85 1/2 |
| Cash on track: Wheat, 14,230 bu.   |             |        |
| Shipments: Wheat, 28,200 bu.   |             |        |

Chicago Markets.
CHICAGO, Jan. 27.—"Longs" in wheat indulged in a general foot race to see who could sell out first. May wheat started at 90 1/2c and sold to 1/4. There was an increase of 72,000 bu. in the wheat and flour on ocean passage, and public Liverpool cables were 1/4d per cent off on wheat. With Philadelphia, Baltimore and Oswego yet to hear from the visible showed a decrease of 721,000 bu. Private cables said that Liverpool prices were 1/4d per cent higher instead of that much lower. May corn started at 52 1/2c; May oats 45 1/2c. Following is the close: Wheat, May, 85 1/2c; July, 81 1/2c. Corn, May, 45 1/2c; July, 42c. Oats, May, 45 1/2c; July, 42c. Lard, May, 80 1/2c; Rice, May, 85 1/2c.

Chicago Money.
CHICAGO, Jan. 27.—The clearings were $11,263,500. Foreign exchange ruled firm at 185 for 60 day bills, and 185 for sight drafts. Exchange on New York opened at par.

Foreign Markets.
LONDON, Jan. 27.—Foreign grain markets opened this morning steady. At Liverpool wheat and corn were quiet. California wheat is quoted one half penny lower, wheat of coast steady and on passage firm. Corn off coast on passage firm. There were sales of five cargoes of wheat and ten cargoes of corn off coast.

New York Money and Stocks.
NEW YORK, Jan. 27.—Money on call loaned at easy rates, 2 1/2c per cent. Exchange closed steady: posted rates, 185 1/2c; actual rates, 185 1/2c; for sixty days and 48 1/2c; for demand (covered) steady; currency, 98 1/2c; gold, 100 1/2c; coupon, 100 1/2c; 4 1/2c do, 98 1/2c bid. The stock market was more active. Prices opened higher, the advance ranging from 1/4 to 1/2 per cent, the latter in Jersey Central. In the early dealings, however, the demand slackened and led by Lackawanna, the general list receded 1/4 to 3/4 while Manhattan elevated dropped from 100 to 97 1/2.

Woman's Smiles and Woman's Tears.
One to enliven, the other to soften the heart of mankind. An old bachelor once said women were either "all smiles or all tears," but this cannot be true, for what would there be "twixt a tear and a smile?" Women have enough to bear to make them "all tears," and enough to hope for to make them "all smiles." When afflicted with nervousness, "female weakness," sick headache, and the numerous diseases peculiar to their sex, their is necessity for contemplation and for "tears," but when they consider that there is a sure remedy in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for all such "female complaints," there is reason for "smiles."

A TELEGRAPH SPREE.

But There Were Too Many Telegrams and Not Enough Business.
He was a good young man, but his goodness was not absolutely useless, so it came about that he became broke, and went to a friend of his who keeps a white mustache and a saloon, says the New York Star, and he borrowed $1, one plain round silver dollar. And he said: "I'll give it back this afternoon, old man."

But a week would have it, he was a slave, being married. So he had to go home for the money. His slave driver gave him $2, and lude him to be home promptly for 6 o'clock dinner. He promised, for he is a promising young man.

Then he went to his friend of the mustache and the saloon and paid $1 cash and "blowed" another dollar in drinks. Then he borrowed $3, more, and they went the same way. The 6 o'clock dinner was in the near future, but the young man who is not flawless knew that he could not get home in time. Thereupon, like a wise slave, he sent a telegram this wise:

"Detained on business. Home at 7." Then he spent the $3.
By this time he met a large number of very dear friends—by the way, he had never seen them before—and so he borrowed $5 more. Then he sent another telegram:

"Still detained on business. Be home at 9."
And after that the young man went home in his goodness remembered little more. He has vague ideas of men with mustaches and saloons and of telegraph offices. Moreover, a vague recollection of an "L" train that went too far, and of unexplained wilds of Harlem.

But in the end he went home like a sane slave. And in the morning when he was taking a cold tub, preparatory to a penitential breakfast, there came a knock at the door and a small lad in a blue jumper and white smock handed him a telegram that had been sent from Harlem in the early hour of dawn.

And it read:
"Shall never be home any more. Can't find it. Detained on business."

NO OBSTRUCTION THERE.

Lake vessel owners' associations have petitioned the senate to pass the bill for the construction of a tunnel under the river at Duluth. There is unanimity of opinion among shipmen which should be decisive. Railroad companies for years have been endeavoring to have the river connecting lakes Huron and Erie bridged at Duluth, and the railway committee of the Dominion parliament some months ago reported a bill authorizing a bridge over the Detroit. At the same time the Dominion parliament is opposed to the construction of any more bridges over the St. Lawrence, through which the commerce of the Dominion passes.

The commerce of the great lakes is increasing with extraordinary rapidity. According to statistics published in The Herald, the tonnage passing through the Detroit river in 234 days last year exceeded by 3,000,000 tons the combined foreign and coastwise shipping of Liverpool and London, and by 10,000,000 tons the entire clearance of all the seaports of the United States. With commercial reciprocity with Canada and the continued development of the Northwest this commerce will be greatly increased and the vessel men are wise in endeavoring to prevent even the slightest obstruction to lake commerce by means of bridges.

The action of Canada in pushing for unobstructed navigation over that part of the lake and rivers through which the products of the Dominion pass to the sea is in sharp contrast to the halting methods of our own government. The work of deepening the Beauharnois and Cornwall canals at an expense of $12,000,000 will soon be begun, and when completed with an enlarged Welland, also to be done by Canada, any ships on the lakes that can pass the Sault will be able to reach the Atlantic and Duluth may be an ocean port just as long as it will suit the convenience of our Canadian cousins to have it such.

MILWAUKEE'S WAY.

Our fair neighbor, the beery city of Milwaukee, has been having an epidemic of a series of them. First it was diphtheria and scarlet fever, and now it is typhoid. By its experience the city board of health appears to have learned something. It is forcing a report from all physicians having typhoid patients, and at once the house in which there is a typhoid fever case is inspected thoroughly by a health officer. He also looks over the premises with a view to ascertaining the cause. In nearly every case thus far investigated the disease has been directly traced to sewer gas, impure water supply or other defective sanitary conditions. In such cases the cause is at once condemned and ordered to be placed in perfect sanitary condition. By enforcing these rules the board of health hopes to bring about a noticeable decrease in the number of typhoid fever cases.

In nearly every one of the dozen or more cities where typhoid fever prevails, Milwaukee, Albany, Troy, Denver, Lawrence, Brooklyn, the Pacific coast towns, the cause is found to be bad water. In Duluth, however, the water is all right—so say Dr. Hewitt and the water works company. Something else that gets into our stomachs is causing it here. It must be last year's local banana crop.

Capt. Charles King has made out a list of gallant army officers who have been killed in the Indian outbreaks since the close of the Rebellion. It is a long and depressing list, including some of the bravest and most promising young men as well as such tried veterans as Canby and Custer. He mentions Lieut. Casey in particular as an officer whose death in this last outbreak causes universal mourning in the army. It is a bitter business. And when the crippled and the dead and wounded enlisted men—not to mention Indians who don't and shouldn't count—are considered, it is time that some means of preventing Indian wars should be adopted.

Gen. Poe, as was noted in these columns Monday, believes that something over $3,000,000 will put a twenty and twenty-one foot channel in connection with one of the great lakes. Before this would be available it would require half as much more to get the harbor to a capacity for vessels of that depth and the problem is larger than Gen. Poe makes it. But were the channels between Lakes Huron and Erie enlarged, Huron and Michigan would be by just too much drained and the harbors would need still greater cost for deepening. It is unnecessary here to argue that an increase in outlets will draw off more of the water above them, or to show that Lake Superior, because of its locks, would be thereby one of the great chains unaffected by such deepening.

One result of the agitation regarding the city water supply is given on the third page of The Herald today. Prominent citizens intend that there shall be no more delay, and have taken the matter of examination of the water supply into their own hands. Mr. H. C. Church, general manager of the Imperial Mill company, proposes to raise a fund for the purpose of a careful and qualified analysis of the water supplied by the city for drinking purposes, and will start it with a liberal sum. No very large amount of money is necessary to secure a competent analysis, and there is no doubt that it will be secured at once.

It is with regret that The Herald announces today the abandonment, for the present only let us hope, of the Woman's Work exchange. Those who have read of the work of this organization realize what good it has done, and how deeply and earnestly the ladies intend to have carried out their plans. There was never a time when such an institution could do the good it now might, but owing to a rather peculiar circumstance its career must end. It was at one time decided to close the exchange in November, as The Herald then stated, but another trial for success was made, unsuccessful.

The Marquette Journal comes up smiling after its recent bout with the flames and announces a new and better building as soon as the money can be raised. It lost but little by the fire and has certainly gained in the respect of all who have noted its energy in recovery from a severe blow.

An Unthoughtful Opinion.

Chicago's Illustrated Century: The Duluth Evening Herald was established in 1883 and has the largest circulation of any paper in Duluth. It is a very bright, new paper and ably edited, and has press reports from both associations, the United Press and the Associated Press. It is the only paper in Duluth that is a member of both. It will put up a fine new building of its own this spring, the foundation being already laid. The paper is republican in politics and lately purchased the Duluth Evening Times, which makes a strong combination.

This Does Lay Us Out.

Duluth News: The Cranberry Lumber company of Ashland having engaged the cutting capacity of a local mill, The Evening Herald attempts to reconcile the fact with its former statement that the Cranberry Lumber company was about to transfer its entire business to Duluth. This is the way that paper generally patches up its contradictory statements and unreliable publications.

French on Duluth.

George A. French, of Duluth, when in Grand Rapids the other day, buying furniture was interviewed in a half column in a daily of that city. Needless to say he boomed Duluth, and pumped the paper full of statistics on population, iron and lumber, manufacturing, public improvements, harbor, parks and the other things of which Duluth is proud.

BENNER'S BUSINESS PROPHECY.

The brilliant outlook at the beginning of '90 for higher prices for iron and steel, says Samuel Benner, the noted "business prophet," was blighted during the past summer and fall by the persistent necessities of London capitalists realizing on our securities, in consequence of the collapse of speculation in South America, precipitated by the depression in our stock market, ending in a financial panic. There is a wide difference between a yearly panic in money and a periodical panic in trade. One is the alarm of tight money, raised nearly every spring and fall in New York City, while the other is cyclical, and in the inevitable result after a period of wild speculation and inflation in business. The panic of November, 1890, was a financial disturbance—premature—to fulfill the predicted panic for 1891 and will soon subside.

An inflated basis for pig iron, railroad stocks, wild speculation in trade and over-expansion of credits are essential conditions to precede a panic that would result in a reaction of trade. These elements were lacking prior to the late financial flurry. Now, what is the business outlook for the opening year? There is no good reason why a financial disturbance at home or abroad should produce a recession in trade in this country at this time, and when no adverse national legislation is in sight for a year at least. The McKinley tariff, the silver bill and the enormous treasury disbursements forbid.

I predict that the stringency in money and credits will cease this winter, and that business and prices will improve and recover under the working of the McKinley tariff, when in full operation, stimulating trade in many branches of industry all over this country, especially in the South.

I predict that the season 1891 will be an exceptional good one for the provision trade; corn and pork will advance materially to high figures by October next.

I predict that a period of inflation and activity in the iron industry will culminate in the fall of this year during the usual autumnal stringency, and contraction in general business will follow with dropping prices.

The political complications changing the complexion of the next congress, which will be unfriendly to the continuance of the policy of protection to home industry, and the tumult of presidential making in 1892, with third party confusion, will cast their shadows before them, creating doubt as to the future, unfavorably affecting general business.

This reaction in trade will not be sudden and violent, but gradual, giving us fairly prosperous conditions during the operation of the present tariff, to continue until congress passes an act reducing duties. Then will follow a depression in all our industries, extending to a number of years prior to a satisfactory business situation.

THEIR INNERMOST THOUGHTS.

R. D. Chase: The Lake Superior & Northwestern rail is getting on as well as we anticipated. Matters are regulating themselves toward the successful issue of our plans, but we are feeling with all other new roads, the effects of the money flurry.

P. W. Mitchell: We had six or seven clients' money sent us for investment in St. Louis, mostly Eastern money, yet could not get a lot, although we had several tickets.

An Official Opinion.

The report of the late grand jury on E. R. Jefferson is worth repeating:

The chairman of the court house and jail committee (E. R. Jefferson) does not seem to have a clear, well-balanced comprehension of his duties, and he has an exaggerated idea of his powers. Instead of exercising an unbiased manner of performing his duties, he has cheerfully authorized the purchase of supplies for some officials, and has vehemently opposed the purchase of similar and equally necessary supplies for others. It is the opinion that his resignation as chairman, forced or otherwise, would result greatly for the benefit of public business. The grand jury wishes to particularly impress upon the court that the chairman of the court house and jail committee (E. R. Jefferson) is incompetent and causes considerable delay in the transaction of business. The grand jury finds the charges made by E. R. Jefferson to be totally without foundation and evidencing either a childish intellect or a studied system of intentional annoyance.

Insanity of Millionaires.

The increased strain put on a money-making man at the present time, especially if he be engaged in speculation, is something tremendous. Time was, that the very rich people were either those who had inherited a goodly fortune, or those who had accumulated wealth by long years of steady avocation to business. Then, too, a millionaire was a wonder; now anything short of $500,000 to $2,000,000 puts the man out of the category of "the rich." Under the present conditions, every faculty must be constantly under whip and spur, and dangerous nerves are often resorted to. No wonder there are so many cases of death from "heart failure" among the millionaires. The way to avoid this is to cease so much making haste to be rich, to know when one is overreaching, and to always select the luxurious trains of "The Burlington" when about to make a journey.

THE FIGHT TRANSFERRED

Politics in St. Paul and Other State Capitols.

INCLINED TO AID THE "UNDER DOG."

Which in this case is a Synonym For West Duluth.

ST. PAUL, Jan. 28.—The subject of annexation has been thoroughly discussed among the legislators and the delegation from the Zenith city. Senator Daugherty is uncompromisingly in favor of annexation. He is standing by his constituents as firmly as Mr. Boyd and the question will be very interesting before it is settled. Mr. Boyd says personally he thinks it proper to wait for at least two years before annexing West Duluth, but the universal opinion of the public is that a mutual agreement should be signed at once. Mr. Daugherty's bill on annexation was referred to the committee on local bills, of which he is a member.

Today Mr. Boyd offered a resolution in the house requesting the attorney general to furnish the house with his opinion relative to the authority of the legislature in passing certain laws authorizing the issuance of bonds by towns and cities.

The general sentiment among members of both houses seems to be in favor of what the alliance members particularly are pleased to term "the under dog." Thereby meaning West Duluth. The alliance is opposed, as a general thing, to cities, and has been worked upon to such an extent that it believes West Duluth an injured party and an unwilling bride. It will be hard to get the Duluth measure of annexation through while this feeling prevails, and energetic work is now being done to change it.

PEPPER ELECTED.

He Must Stand by the Ocala Platform; Vilas Also.

TOPEKA, Kan., Jan. 28.—The vote for United States senator in joint session today resulted as follows: Pepper, 101; Ingalls, 83; Blair, 3; Baker, 1; Morrill, 1; Kelly, 1.

For the first time in the history of the state a United States senator has been chosen who owes no allegiance to the republican party and who was elected without its aid. The vote is substantially the same as the vote taken yesterday, in each house separately.

The Ocala Platform.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—President Livingston, of Georgia, farmer, alliance, who is a member of the next house, says that Pepper will have to stand by the Ocala platform. Livingston says that Pepper is an advocate of low tariff.

SENATOR SQUIRE NOT SQUARE.

Reports of Wholesome History in the Washington Senatorial Contest.

TACOMA, Wash., Jan. 28.—A great sensation has been caused by Representative Frame, democratic member from Snohomish county, openly stating that he was offered $5000 to vote for Squire. Frame will testify before the investigating committee.

Representative Hutchinson is quoted as having stated that he was offered a bribe to vote for Squire, but it is reported he will refuse to testify.

Vilas.

MADISON, Wis., Jan. 28.—Col. William Freeman Vilas was formally elected senator to succeed United States Senator Spooner in the joint convention of the legislature at noon today.

Woman's Smiles and Woman's Tears.

One to soothe, the other to soften the heart of mankind. An old bachelor once said women were either "all smiles or all tears," but this cannot be true, for what would there be "twixt a tear and a smile?" Women have enough to bear to make them "all tears," and enough to hope for to make them "all smiles!" When afflicted with nervousness, "female weakness," sick headache, and the numerous diseases peculiar to their sex, and their necessity for contemplation and for "tears," but when they consider that there is a sure remedy in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for all such "female complaints," there is reason for "smiles."

WORLD OF COMMERCE

Money and Stock Situation in New York Today.

PRICES FOR WHEAT IN DULUTH.

Chicago, Minneapolis and Foreign Markets; Trade Notes of General Interest.

The market opened firm this morning with buyers at from 1/2 to 3/4 over yesterday's close. Large amounts of wheat were worked for export. The demand here continued good for the May future, while cash and January wheat ruled dull. Receipts here were larger than for the corresponding period of last year. The shipments of wheat for milling purposes have been light for the past few days.

May No. 1 hard opened selling at 90c and dropped to 89 1/2c, selling in 50,000 bu lots at 89 1/2c. Before the close under a steady demand it had gained 1/4c, and closed with bids at 89 3/4c. May No. 1 northern started with a sale at 89c, but dropped to 88 1/2c on the next sale of 20,000 bu. In the forenoon it held firmly at this figure, but gained in the afternoon 1/4c under a stimulated demand, closing at 89 1/4c bid. January wheat sold in the forenoon at 89 1/4c in 10,000 bu lot and retained that figure firm to the close. January No. 1 northern closed without transaction at 89 1/4c, but there was poor demand for cash wheat today. No. 1 northern on track sold in the forenoon at 89 1/4c but nothing was done in the afternoon. Wheat in store closed steadily with little demand at 89 1/4c and 84 1/4c.

The closing prices were as follows:

|                | Cash Jan. 1 | May    |
|----------------|-------------|--------|
| No. 1 hard     | 89 1/4      | 89 3/4 |
| No. 1 northern | 89 1/4      | 89 3/4 |

Cars on track: Wheat, 31; last year wheat, 25. Receipts: Wheat, 25,000 bu. Shipments: Wheat, 10,000 bu. Inspection: Cars No. 1 hard, 3; No. 1 northern, 17; No. 2 northern, 4; No. 3, 3; No. 1 white winter wheat, 0; total, 28.

New York Money and Stocks.
New York, Jan. 28.—Money loaned at 1 1/2 per cent. throughout the morning. Exchange quiet; posted rates, 85 1/2 @ 85 3/4; actual rates, 85 1/4 @ 85 1/2. Dividends paid for Jan. 28. Governments steady; currency 6 1/2, 100 bid; 4 1/2, coupon, 11 1/2, do, 11 1/2 bid.

The stock market was more active than yesterday. It opened strong and 1/4 to 1/2 per cent higher, while Reading was up 3/4, and Canada Southern 1/4 per cent. The market, however, was confined to a few leading stocks, Villards, Union Pacific, L. & N. St. Paul and the sugar trusts. During the early dealings there was considerable further advance. The market was strong and active and at noon the best figures of the morning were current.

Foreign Markets.

LONDON, Jan. 28.—The foreign markets opened this morning irregular. There were no cargoes of wheat offering off coast. Wheat on passage was firm. Corn on coast and on passage were strong. At Mark Lane wheat and corn were firm. The French markets were quiet.

Chicago Wheat.

CHICAGO, Jan. 28.—Wheat started firm. There were light rains all over the winter wheat belt and the trade was acting on the theory that a blizzard would follow the rains and greatly damage wheat. Otherwise the news was bearish. Liverpool cables noted a decline of 1/4d per cent and there were 233 cars wheat at Duluth and Minneapolis. Corn was also affected by the rains. The receipts were already light and it is thought the wet weather would cut them down still further. Pork was weak at the outset because of the enormous receipts of hogs—51,000 head.

Following is the close: Wheat: May, 92 1/2; July, 92; Corn: May, 52 1/2; July, 52; Pork: May, 45 1/2; Pork: May, 10 1/2; Lard: May, 8 1/2; Ribs: May, 8 1/2.

BUSINESS ABSORPTION.

How Americans Continually Miss Life's Highest and Best Good.

When Herbert Spencer was here several years ago, he talked a little to some of our best men at a friendly symposium upon this subject. His kindly spirit took the sting from his implied censure, he said that Americans seem to miss life's highest good by their eagerness for business success. Absorption in business becomes so absolute that if its stimulus be withdrawn, life's spring is broken, no pause for rest is complete; no relaxation for the sake of individual health is pleasurable, and enforces absence from the desk or exchange is a daily affliction indeed.

Life without business progress is not worth living. We work until we drop in our tracks. Heart failure, apoplexy, a lesion or rupture within the brain—one fine finds out the way to the citadel of life before we think of resting from active labors, and the men who die at their posts are usually in the prime of life.

The harm to posterity is incalculable. Our children receive as their heritage the enfeebled bodies and brains we generate from our own impaired vitality, instead of the perfect constitution nature intends that a man should pass on from one generation to another, like an entailed estate. Millions of money are no compensation for frail physical and mental powers. The ability to enjoy life, which health alone can give, is a jewel more precious than gold or silver. Such an heirloom is beyond the power of a great number to bequeath, who have been so absorbed in business that they have no time to look at the life of our principal men of business. It is luxurious so far as surroundings go, and such indulgences are concerned as can be had between 9 p. m. and 10 a. m., and there generally is a summer vacation. But until the physician intervenes, business men seldom go beyond the reach of the telegraph or mail service; and even in dreams they hug the idol whose cult they follow.

What would his associates think of a financier who for an hour at noon would literally turn his back upon his business for the purpose of resting and refreshing himself? He would be esteemed about as much as an American shopkeeper would be, following the example of his co-trader in France, who closes his shop door with bars for an hour or so at noon while he takes his breakfast with his family. And yet the latter is wisest. Business success is far less a good in life than the enjoyment of that sweetness and light that come from home affections. He builds best who strengthens the walls of home, and for him who builds not so, the scale of life are barren as the shadowless Sahara.
